"Note: Times are approximate and subject to change depending on group size and the interactive nature of the workshop."

"We want to make the most out of our time together and get the full value of this workshop!"

As this session is 100% interactive and built on group work, active participation and keeping your camera on are essential.

Since we'll be working in groups with zero passive lectures, please ensure you are in a space where you can fully engage!"
